Articles of Agreement, indented, had, made, concluded and agreed upon, by and between the ſeveral Perſons, Freeholders and Owners of Houſes, Meſſuages and Tenements in Charles-Town in Berkley County in the Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, for a mutual Inſurance of their Houſes and Tenements from Loſs by Fire.

WHEREAS the Inſurance of Houſes againſt Fire hath by experience been found to be of very great Service, to many Perſons, who would otherwiſe have been reduced to Poverty and Want And whereas, by reaſon of our Diſtance from Great-Britain, no Inſurance Office there, will, upon any Terms or Conditions, inſure any Houſe in this Town from Loſs by Fire; and it being natural for Men, to form themſelves into Companies and Societies, in order to guard againſt thoſe Evils and Miſchiefs, which ſeparately and in their diſtinct Capacities they would not be able to avoid. WE THEREFORE, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, Freeholders and Owners of Houſes, Meſſuages and Tenements in Charleſtown, taking the Premiſes into Conſideration, DO by theſe preſents freely and voluntarily, and for our mutual Benefit and Advantage, covenant, promiſe, conclude and agree, for ourſelves and our reſpective Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, to and with each the other of us, in manner and form following, that is to ſay, Imprimis, We do covenant, promiſe, conclude and agree, That we will, and we do by theſe Preſents form ourſelves (as far as by Law we may) into a SOCIETY for the mutual INSURANCE of our reſpective Meſſuages, and Tenements in Charles Town (which ſhall be entered in the Books of the Directors of the Society to be inſured) from Loſſes by Fire, and do name and call ourſelves the FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

Item, We do covenant, promiſe, conclude and agree, that we will become humble Suitors to his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, and the General Aſſembly, to paſs an Act of General Aſſembly in Favour of our ſaid Society, thereby to enable us to purchaſe Lands, Houſes and Tenements, Goods and Chattels, and to lend out Moneys, in order to have and eſtabliſh a Fund, always ready to make good any Loſs or Demand that may be made on the ſaid Society, and alſo to make By-Laws, Rules and Directions for the better ordering the Affairs of the ſaid Society, and for Enabling Guardians to inſure Meſſuages, Houſes and Tenements of Orphans and Minors.

Item, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall be, or be admitted to be, a Member of this Society, but ſuch only as have, or ſhall have, a Meſſuage, Houſe or Tenement, ſcituate in Charleſtown aforeſaid, inſured.

Item, That all ſuch Perſons, who ſhall become Members of this Society, ſhall meet on every firſt Tueſday in February Yearly and every Year, at ſuch Houſe as the Directors ſhall appoint The firſt General Meeting to be at the Houſe of William Pinckney, in Charleſtown aforeſaid, or at ſuch other time and Place as the Majority of the Members ſhall appoint, to chooſe proper Officers, and to make ſuch Rules and Regulations as may appear Neceſſary.

Item, That there ſhall be choſen on ſuch Annual Meetings of the ſaid Society, by the Majority of the Members then preſent, five Directors (three of whom ſhall be a Quorum) one Treaſurer, and one Clerk, and three Appraiſers, and alſo two or more Fire Maſters, whoſe particular Buſineſs ſhall be directed in the firſt General Meeting of the ſaid Society

Item, That towards raiſing a Fund, for anſwering all Exigencies of the ſaid Society, every Member of the Society inſuring a Houſe, Meſſuage or Tenement, to the Value of One Thouſand Pounds Current Money, ſhall pay down, before he has his Policy of Inſurance delivered to him, the Sum of Ten Pounds like Money, by way of Premium, and ſo in proportion, for a greater or leſs Sum by every Member inſured.

Item, That every Member of the Society, inſuring a Houſe, Meſſuage or Tenement, to the Value of One Thouſand Pounds Current Money, ſhall give his Bond, payable to the Directors and Treaſurer of the Society, and their Succeſſors in Office for One Hundred Pounds like Current Money, (and ſo in proportion for a greater or leſs Sum inſured) payable with lawful Intereſt at 10 l. per Centum, within 12 Months next enſuing the Date of ſuch Bonds, which Intereſt ſhall be duly paid yearly and every Year. And in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the Intereſt as aforeſaid to become due on their reſpective Bonds, by the Space of 3 Months after the ſame becomes due, every ſuch perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting as aforeſaid, ſhall looſe and forfeit all Benefit and Advantage of his Inſurance, any thing in his, her or their Policy of Inſurance to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Item, That all Monies, ariſing by the Payment of the ſaid Premiums, and the Intereſt of the ſeveral Bonds as aforeſaid, which ſhall remain in the Hands of the Treaſurer (over and above the Sum of 200 l) after defraying all neceſſary Charges accruing on extinguiſhing Fire, ſhall by the Directors be lent out at Intereſt, upon good and ſufficient Security, on Bonds payable as aforeſaid, and all the Intereſt thereon, as ſoon as the ſame ſhall be paid in, ſhall be again let out at Intereſt, for the Uſe and Benefit of the ſaid Society proportionably: Provided that no leſs a Sum than 100 l. nor a greater than 1000 l. ſhall be lent to any one perſon.

Item, That in caſe of a Loſs by Fire, happening to any perſon inſured by the ſaid Society, all the Members of the ſaid Society ſhall be obliged to pay to the Directors and Treaſurer

Treaſurer ſuch part of the Money due on their Bonds, or the whole thereof, if it be neceſſary, to pay and make good to the Inſured, what their Loſs may appear to be, agreeable to the Policy of Inſurance of the perſon ſuſtaining ſuch Loſs.

Item, That within 3 Days after any Fire and Loſs to any perſon inſured, the proper Officers of the Society ſhall ſurvey the Damage, and report the ſame to the Directors, who ſhall thereupon take ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be neceſſary for the Payment of the Loſs ſuſtained.

Item, That every Perſon inſured ſhall have a lawful Claim and Demand upon the Directors of the Company, for their Loſs ſuſtained by Fire, in the Meſſuage, Houſe or Tenement inſured, agreeable to their Policy of Inſurance, and ſuch Loſs ſhall be made good to them within three Months after ſuch Loſs. And if it ſhould ſo happen, that ſuch Perſon is not then paid his Loſs, he ſhall be allowed lawful Intereſt thereon, from the Expiration of the ſaid three Months, untill the ſame is paid; which ſhall be abſolutely done, both Loſs and Intereſt, within 12 Months from the Loſs.

Item, But in Caſe it ſhall ſo happen, that more Houſes, Meſſuages or Tenements inſured ſhould be burned or deſtroyed by Fire, than the whole Stock of the Society ſhould amount to, then and in every ſuch Caſe there ſhall be but an equal and proportionable Diviſion of the ſaid Stock to every Perſon according to his Loſs ſuſtained and the ſaid Society ſhall be diſcharged from making good any Loſs further than the Amount of their Stock

Item, That when any Loſs ſhall happen to any Perſon inſured, his Proportion of any Demand that might be made on his Bond, towards making good ſuch Loſs, ſhall be reckoned as paid to him in part of Payment of his Loſs ſuſtained.

Item, That if in time of a Fire, the Fire Maſters, or other Officers of the Society, ſhall tkink it neceſſary to pull down or blow up a Houſe inſured, in order to ſtop the Fire, ſuch Houſe ſhall be made good to the Inſured in the ſame Manner as if it had been deſtroyed or damaged by Fire

Item, That no Houſe, Meſſuage or Tenement ſhall be inſured for a leſs Sum than 250 Pounds Current Money, nor any for a larger Sum than Four Thouſand Pounds like Money.

Item, That for the better Regulating the Affairs of the ſaid Society, every Member having 500 Pounds inſured, ſhall have a Right to vote, in all Meetings of the ſaid Society, in all Matters, tranſacting therein, and any two Perſons having 250 Pounds each inſured may join, and be intitled to one Vote, and any Perſon having 1000 Pounds inſured ſhall be intituled to two Votes, and ſo in proportion for a greater or leſs Sum inſured

Item, That in order the better to eſtabliſh and continue this Society, that no Member thereof ſhall be at Liberty, at any time within 5 Years next enſuing the Date hereof, to withdraw himſelf or his Bond (to be entered into as aforeſaid) but ſhall be obliged to pay the ſame according to the Tenor thereof, and theſe Articles, only in Caſe ſuch Member ſhall bona fide ſell or diſpoſe of his Houſe, Meſſuage or Tenement inſured; then and in ſuch Caſe his Bond ſhall be delivered up or diſcharged pro tanto, without any further Demand to be made upon him, nor ſhall he any further, as to ſuch Meſſuage, Houſe or Tenement ſo bona fide ſold or diſpoſed of, be deemed a Member of the ſaid Society. But on any Perſons ſo ſelling or diſpoſing of his Meſſuage, Houſe or Tenement inſured, the Vendee, on ſigning a Bond of the ſame Import with that ſigned by the Vendor, on his being inſured, ſhall be intituled to the ſame Benefits and Advantages, and Subject to the ſame Demands as the Vendor was intituled or ſubject to under his Inſurance.

Item, That theſe Articles ſhall be ſubſcribed and cloſed on the firſt Tueſday in February next, when the proper Officers for the enſuing Year ſhall be then choſen by a Majority of the Society then preſent. And that the Directors then named ſhall have Power to admit other Perſons, who are willing to become Members of the ſaid Society, at ſuch times and in ſuch Claſſes as they ſhall think proper.

HORAT.

THere is no valuable Quality, ſo generally approved of, in Speculation, and ſo little regarded in Practice, as that, of moderating our Reſentments, refraining from Revenge, and of treating thoſe, who have injured us, with Humanity and Greatneſs of mind. But, as it is a Vice to be inflamed, too much, by ill Treatment, ſo, not to be warmed, at all, argues Stupidity: Reaſonable, diſpaſſionate Reſentment, has its Beauties, as well as Forgiveneſs; and the Dignity of our Nature ſometimes requires it To govern, to temper our Paſſions, is Prudent; to exert thoſe Paſſions properly, is alſo the Dictate both of Philoſophy and Religion

Reſentment, in the Heart of Man, is like a Thorn about a beauteous Flower; it is a Guard and Protection from the Outrages, of the Overbearing and the Rude.

Our Chief Care, in this Matter, is to diſtinguiſh, truly, between Reſentment and Revenge; and to provide, that the Former do not advance too far, or touch on the Confines of the other: For by not duly and carefully attending to this Diſtinction, the fiery, paſſionate and revengeful Man is often hurried and driven into ſuch Crimes, as will not only affect his Peace, and Reputation, at preſent, but will hazard his eternal Happineſs hereafter.

He, who too far perſues the Dictates of Wrath, or who ſtudies, in all the diſpleaſing Treatments he meets with, directly to miniſter his own Vengeance, who diſpences his own Thunder on every trivial Occaſion, and who, led by his paſſions, much exceeds the Injuries received; He, I ſay, becomes the Author of Slavery to himſelf, and is his own Tyrant: He liſtens not to the Call and Dictate of Reaſon and Nature; the Guides which God has given us, in the Conduct of our Lives and Actions; he drowns their peaceable Whiſpers, in the Storms of his Anger; his Rage renders him incapable of diſtinguiſhing Good from Evil, He departs from his Relation to God, and to Truth, nor, his Neighbour's Happineſs, nor his own, are regarded by him, and he abſurdly makes himſelf the Enemy of both. His Behaviour, in the Eye of a wiſe Man, is Madneſs; and the cool temperate Stoick denies, that he is, now, of the Human Kind.

Be adviſed therefore, you who are apt to be inflamed by little Provocations, be adviſed, guard yourſelves againſt yourſelves, ſuppreſs the firſt Motions to Indignation; call up your whole Reaſon, to your Aid, and conſtantly revolve in your Minds, that, the Man, who poſſeſſes himſelf, in this Manner, is not only raiſed above the inferior animal Creation, but riſes up to the higheſt Perfection of his rational Nature; for as Solomon rightly obſerves, he that is ſlow to Anger, is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his Spirit, than he that taketh a City.

But leſt I ſhould, by expatiating farther on this Topick, incur the Diſpleaſure and Reſentment of my Readers, I ſhall proceed immediately to the unhappy and melancholy Accident, which gave riſe to the foregoing Reflections.

On Sunday the 9th of November laſt between the Hours of 11 & 12 in the Forenoon, was found the Body of Wm. Douglaſs, late Servant to Doct. Patrick Tailfer of Georgia He was found lying in a Hutt near his Maſter's Houſe, the Owner of it being from home Several Marks of Violence were obſerved to be upon his Body, which gave a Suſpicion that he was murdered; and the Inqueſt, who were ſummoned, upon the Occaſion, thought proper to call in the Aſſiſtance of a Surgeon to examine the Body. Accordingly William Watkins an able Surgeon, and two other ſufficient Men, bred Apothecaries, were ſent for. Upon Search they found the Head to be violently bruiſed; and particularly on the Os Parietale near the Crown of the Head, and a little on the right ſide of the Sutura Sagittalis was a contuſed Wound, which, upon preſſing with their Fingers, they found to go in pretty deep; and apprehending there might be a Fracture, they proceeded to a farther Search. On taking off the outward Skin a great deal of congeal'd Blood appeared, which was cleans'd off quite to the Cranium, the Pericranium being ſcraped away. The Surgeon, perceiving ſome ſmall appearance of a Rima, or Fiſſure in the Skull, to be farther ſatisfied, blew into it, & immediately ſome Drops of Blood iſſued out, and after having well cleanſed off the Blood with a Spunge, he repeated it again, and the ſame effect enſued. Upon this he concluded there muſt be a Fiſſure in the Cranium, tho' hardly perceptible to the Eye. They then proceeded to examine other Parts of his Body, and found on the Abdomen, a little above the Os Pubis, inclining to the left ſide, a large Contuſion, occaſioned, as they ſuppoſed, by a Blow or Kick: It appeared, on the outſide, very green, and upon opening the Body the Bowels were found to be changed of the ſame Colour, on that ſide, where the Hurt was received; tho' in other parts they look'd freſh and well. Upon the whole, Mr Watkins the Surgeon, and the two Apothecaries gave it, as their Opinion, upon Oath, that the Deceaſed died of thoſe Wounds. Five or ſix Witneſſes of good Credit were then produced, who made Oath, that the Deceaſed came to them, two Days before he was found dead, and complained that his Maſter had then given him his Death's Wound, and ſhew'd them his Head very much bruiſed, and ſaid, that thoſe Wounds muſt either coſt him his Life or his Senſes; and added that the Wound on his Body was much worſe than thoſe on his Head. Twelve or thirteen more Witneſſes depoſed many things relating to the cruel Uſage of the Maſter, and that the Deceaſed had frequently ſhew'd them Wounds given him by his Maſter, and expreſſed a Fear that he would ſome time or other be the Death of him. Among theſe was a young Woman Servant to the ſaid Tailfer, who had herſelf been inhumanly uſed by him, as appeared by ſeveral Marks and Bruiſes on her Face, Arms and other parts of her Body. The Coroner's Inqueſt upon the whole, brought in their Preſentment in theſe Words. "We believe that the Death "of William Douglaſs late Servant to Patrick Tailfer, was "Cauſed by violent Blows and Bruiſes received from his "ſaid Maſter Patrick Tailfer." A Warrant was then iſſued for apprehending him, and he was taken up; but immediately admitted to Bail. The next Day a Court was called and a Grand Jury impannelled, who after a long Debate, brought in a Bill preſenting Patrick Tailfer Guilty of Man-ſlaughter. The Court did not proceed to Tryal; for the Doct. petitioned to defer it ſix Weeks longer, that he might be better prepared for his Defenſe, which was granted, and he was continued upon Bail. And thus the Affair ſtands at preſent. The Deceaſed young Man is univerſally lamented, he had a libeſal Education, was bred a Surgeon, and remarked by every one in the Place for his ſingular Modeſty and good Behaviour.
